STELLA MCCARTNEY X LENOVO

Stella McCartney offered an incredible platform to the MA Design students of Central Saint Martins, UAL, to blend talent with cutting-edge technology through this amazing initiative with Lenovo.

Together, they invited us to take part in an eight-week project exploring how technology and fashion can intersect to protect Mother Earth.

Issued on April, 2022

WINNER OF THE NYCXDESIGN FESTIVAL STUDENT COMPETITION

An event organised by the Design Transforms, Central Saint Martins, University of The Arts London where they co-produced an exhibition 'Design Transforms Borders' in partnership with human rights activist organizations Touching Land and Territorial Empathy.

And I was one of the four students that were selected to join the Design Transforms in New York in the month of May'22 for this fantastic initiative and opportunity.
